

abc Extreme
MAKEOVER

Dr. Reef to be seen on ABC's
Extreme Makeover
as a psychological expert

Dr. Reef is a sought after commentator recently seen on NBC's "The Today Show," CNN, CBS and others. He is an expert on VH1's new sex and relationships show, "The Love Lounge", and he's hosted MTV/KROQ'S "Loveline."

Dr. Reef is a modern day Renaissance man. He has explored all aspects of the entertainment realm; he was chosen to serve as technical medical advisor on a number of influential feature films including "Thirteen" and "Laurel Canyon". He also profiled the characters in the movie "Bourne Identity" for the film's DVD release bonus material. Reef is also an accomplished actor whose work has been applauded by major publications such as the Hollywood Reporter, Entertainment Weekly and the New York Times.

"Reef Karim proves to be a charismatic host, equally at ease addressing the camera or shepherding the contestants through the process."

TV GUIDE

HE CAN ALSO BE SEEN AS A SEX AND RELATIONSHIPS EXPERT ON VH1'S

The Love Lounge

COMING SOON!

COURT TV
The Investigation Channel

Dr. Reef Leads Celebrity Sleuths in New Season of
"House of Clues"
Nov 8

Celebrity sleuths will join host, profiling expert and psychiatrist Dr. Reef Karim for the new season of Court TV's hit series "House of Clues," the show that turns everyday people into profilers.

Dr. Reef, as he is known, will test the snooping skills of controversial "Apprentice" star Omarosa Manigault-Stallworth in the new season premiere airing November 8 at 11 PM (ET/PT).

PRESS CONTACT:
Much and House Public Relations
323.965.0852

Elizabeth Much
emuch@muchandhousepr.com

Melissa Thiel
mthiel@muchandhousepr.com